I ran across this journal entry I made during the National Gathering of American Baptists held in Pasadena, California in 2009. I thought I would share it with you all as a back drop to the event changing month May 2014 is turning out to be for me and my family!

Consider the Lilies....

I find myself in a conference room that is set aside to have participation through stations of prayer. The first one that caught my eye was a corner table with a vase of exquisite lilies. As God has clothed them in such a magnificent way, it is a reminder to me that in fact He will tend to us with the same abundance of care.

As I looked at those lilies, it helped put in perspective the outcome of all of life's major event changes. God has assured us that Solomon with all of his riches was not arrayed like one of those. We are so blessed to be part of a heritage that still applauds God's ability to use all shapes, colors & sizes for His Kingdom Building.

I have been so encouraged to see the participation in worship by so many young people at this national gathering of Baptists! The youth from Ravenswood First Baptist Church (The church I served before coming to Philippi), R L Ely & Caleb Villers are representing WV in such a glorious way.

I walked into this venue yesterday as over 1,000 folks were standing, singing, praising & dancing (oh, I meant to say moving interpretively) before God. There were hundreds of youth throughout the arena along with all other generations. We were ethnically diverse from all corners of the Globe as well as being from all corners of the USA. We heard powerful testimony of what God was doing in a local church here in California and witnessed a benediction from an urban poet that gave glory to God in such a powerful way that I was overcome with God's presence.

If that wasn't enough, Nick Vujicic, the speaker was placed on a table before us because he had no hands or feet! What he had was an amazing command of God's word & shared his incredible testimony of God's purpose for us all. Over fifty folks came forward as a sign of allowing God to set us free from sin & self. What a glorious service!

I want to rededicate my passion of seeing more come to worship in spirit and in truth.

May we all renew our passion of sharing the whole gospel to the whole world for the whole of God's Kingdom!

One of the reasons this journal entry comes to life for me some five years after the fact is our son, Caleb, graduated from Alderson Broaddus University on May 10, 2014. In fact, he is part of the first class to graduate under the name University instead of College! I'll never forget the joy I saw in his face as he worshipped in that large venue with so many others back in 2009! Caleb graduated with a major in Christian Studies from ABU and will be spending the summer as an administrative intern at The West Virginia Baptist Camp in Cowen, WV. He has been our Praise Team Leader at Philippi Baptist Church these last few years and he led his last service this past Sunday in that capacity.

I brought him up at the end of the service to thank him for his service to God's Kingdom and was overcome by emotion yet again as I thought of the positive witness this young man continues to be as a disciple of Christ.

We also have another graduation to attend this weekend as our daughter, Allison, walks across the stage for Philip Barbour High School's Commencement Ceremonies at the Barbour County Fairgrounds. Then of course, we didn't want to be outdone by our children, on May 27th, 2014, Koreen and I celebrated our 25th Anniversary as well!

Not to mention the great opportunity of being with both sets of our families over the Memorial Day Weekend, it has been quite a month for new beginnings and continued histories! It is always a privilege to honor our veterans, of which my dad, Rev. Lewis Villers, is as well. We had a very fitting tribute during the worship service on Sunday and was so glad to see the news coverage of several memorial day services throughout our region for this holiday. PBHS represented us well in Grafton's 147th Memorial Day Parade and we want to thank HM1 Alan Kropf, a veteran of the United States Navy, his wife and their eight children for bringing such a wonderful news story to Philippi with the building of a war memorial in their front yard. Their memorial service on Sunday afternoon even involved a 21 gun salute in honor of those from Mr. Kropf's unit that lost their lives in Afghanistan. Their home is on the corner across from the courthouse near Premier Bank and the Laundromat.

It is a great month to remember and also a great month to prepare for where God's is working next and to join him!

Shalom,
Pastor Jon

She's Done It All—Almost

Have you ever seen a moose born in the wild? Gone fishing at 2:00 a.m. in bright sunlight? Flown faster than the speed of sound? Well, Sharon Freed has!

Born and raised on a farm near the tiny town of Arlington, Iowa, about forty minutes north of Cedar Rapids, Sharon graduated from high school there, worked for a year in a plastics factory which made parts for John Deere tractors, and then, leaving the family farm behind, she joined the Air Force. For the next fifteen years she worked as an aircraft mechanic, then a maintenance instructor, and then a training manager. Stationed first at Nellis Air Force Base near Las Vegas, Nevada, one of only two women in her division, she was later transferred to the Eielson base in Fairbanks, Alaska, and it was there that she met her husband, Bob. Because of her job, she traveled to many parts of the world, including Iceland and Germany and much of the United States. For the past two years Sharon has served as Administrative Assistant in the School of Teacher Education at Alderson Broaddus University. Her parents still live in Iowa, as does her brother, who took over the family farm and owns a plumbing business. Sharon also has a sister living in North Carolina and one in Arizona.

It was after Bob, her husband, retired eighteen years ago that they returned to his home state, West Virginia. Their son, Scott, now completing his freshman year as a chemistry major at Alderson Broaddus, was born in Parkersburg, but they moved to Philippi when Scott was three years old. He attended the Feed My Sheep school, and it was there that he became friends with Jonathan Franke. It was through the Frankes and the Blankenships and their mutual involvement with swim teams that the Freed's came to Philippi Baptist Church.

Speaking of the church, Sharon says, "This has been a church home for Scott, ever since he got involved in the youth program. It has been good for me to help occasionally with his class in Sunday School. Also, I really enjoy the music, all of it from the Praise Team to the choir. This church is where I find direction and meaning for my life."

If you want to know more about the Northern Lights or about flying upside down in a fighter plane or about cross-country skiing in pitch darkness at noon, check with Sharon Freed. She's done it all.

The Board of Trustees is compiling a list of those individuals who would like to be considered as a substitute when the Church Secretary or Custodian is absent. Please contact the Church office if you would like to be considered.

The Board of Trustees is currently planning to replace our aging Church van in 2016. A restricted account has been set-up by the financial secretary to accept donations toward this vital Church activity. We encourage everyone to donate toward this worthy project when possible. Just a few dollars a week will help us achieve our goal.
